Since 1989 Our History

From our family to yours.

Since 1989, this has been about more than fish and chips. It's a part of British life - something enjoyed throughout the week, shared by families, friends, and neighbours, and passed down just like the traditions behind it.

It began with George and has grown alongside the people of this town. From George, to Andrew, and now to Nik, three generations of our family have been proud to serve you. The names may have changed over the years - George's Tradition, NIK'S Signature Fish & Chips, and now Sea & Earth - but our values and our community never have.
